A GREAT STORM.

Boston's Port is Swept by Tremendous Seas.

[Special Disputch to the Transcript.] Boston, Dec. 14.-No material change in the weather conditions have occurred although the velocity of the wind is a trific less than yesterday. Tremendous sea storm is running outside and the stalled coastwise boats which have been hung up here nearly a week are unable to leave port as yet. High tides have flooded several of the wharves.

BURNED TO DEATH.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.] WATERBURY, Coun., Dec. 14.-Mrs. Patrick Lundrigan, thirty-eight years old, of Thomaston, who has been blind for years, was burned to death last night. Smelling something burning on the stove she made her way to the same and her clothing caught fire. The eldest of her five children, a twelve-years-old boy, fought the flames desperately but his mother was dead before he succeeded in extinguishing them. He was terribly burned himself but got the other children from the room in safety. The father was away at the

INSURED FOR $500,000.

[Special Dispatch to the Transcript.] LONDON, Dec. 14.—An English insurance company has received the solid premium for writing a policy on the life of Prince Henry of Battenberg who has volunteered for the service in the Ashantee campaign. The amount of the policy is $500,000. The concensus of opinion among military men is that it is hard on Colonel Sir Francis Scott, who commands the expedition, to be responsible for looking out for the safety of the prince.

GEN. COMPOS HAS RESIGNED.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH—Summer street. Rev. ter the refreshments Commander Erwin started the speaking by making a good address himself. He talked of the subject of the evening "Fall in Line" and pointed out the difference of its meaning in the field and camp. He discussed that peculiar significance of the command to the soldier and held it was as singificant today as back in the sixties. The soldier should fall in line to uphold the principles the Grand Army represents. He had pleasant and encouraging words too about the Sons of Veterans, the Relief corps and the associate members. There are 60,000 sons he said ready to rally around the flag should it be threatened by traitors at home or foes from abroad. The Relief corps was especially com-mended for its helping hand. The associates, the speaker declared, have shown themselves deeply interested in the objects that the Grand Army tries to sus-

Talk about what you know of the field, camp life or the old soldier. He talked about soldier life and falling in line. He went back to '61 when Sumter was fired upon and the call for men was issued from the days from 9 a, m. to 9.39 p. m.; Sunday from 2.30 to 5.30 p. m. Poys' service Sunday at 3.15 p. m. Music by the Boys' orchestra. Men's meeting martyr president. He pictured recruiting, falling in for drill, falling in for rations, and the leaving of home. Then came falling in for the front, for the side of a ship, for new camps, for drill and many routine things. Spring has come and the army must attack Richmond. Soon comes the distant roll of guns and subject will be "The Destruction of the | then it is fall in for picket. The attack Poor.'. Proverbs: 15. The subject to be of the enemy was graphically described and the terrors of battle also. Hospital scenes were given and prison life touched upon. Mr. Fulton made his talk very interesting by following in story five soldiers through the war and the telling of the experience that number of men had encountered. Evidently the men Mr. Fulton designated by numbers from one to five really existed for the old veterans around seemed to recognize the pictures. In fact Mr. Fulton at the end of his talk dmitted they were not imaginary he had talked about almost half of them he said were in the room.

Rev. F. D. Penney was called on and said the calling on him was a tee-total surprise. He wondered how the subject falling in, would strike Henry Orr; it would be a grave subject to him. The serious side of the subject was by ali means the biggest half. What is there about all these gatherings that makes them all interesting? The stories are always fresh. I wish the next comrade would tell us why. Where is the spot in your own nature that is always touched by the same emotion, the same great principles? He spoke of that part of Harrison's story in the Ladies Home Journal where he said he liked to remember the flag as when he saw it one dark night in Newport harbor and pointed out his way. Mr. Penney said he believed it was what that flag represented that made the old stories always interesting.

II. A. Tower was called upon to explain that something Mr. Penney spoke of. He intendent Hall in opening the exercises was sure some would have been disappointed if he had not been called upon to say something, but was also sure a greater majority would be disappointed to find out be had said nothing when he had said lots. Concerning the subject of the war he said the half was never told and he did not propose to tackle the other half. Out of every 100 that went to the war, according to the story of the five, twenty would be killed, forty would not be scratched. But the forty drank the same water and had the same forced marches the others had, and that forty would be broken down very much sooner in health than if they had not suffered the privations. He wished every man who had such experiences could draw a pension. He expects that the new city government will fall into line for the best. If the candidates for school committee were present he would have lectured to them. We want no history in the schools that is tainted with treason. lizzie Costello gave a fine recitation and | We don't want our children taught to believe both sides were near about right. The Grand Army of the Republic should be the highest type of American citizenship. This community has got to fall into line pretty quick or the charter of Sanford post will soon be surrendered and it will not be honored with a Grand Army post. The post has paid out much money to needy members and you may say, why did you do it? The ties that bind the old members together are as hard to understand as that which Mr. Penney spoke about. The post is owing $5,000, and it is a heavy load. The hall the post now occupies is good, but not the proper one. We don't want to pay $25 a month any longer than we can help. If the $5,000 is not wiped out soon we will consider you

to his boyhood days and he remembered

Line." It was a surprise to the South to see so many flood to fight the rebels. He remembered the feeling of dread that hung when the first shot was fired. The feeling was that the men wouldn't fall in. But they did, and why? From 1830 there was an education going on, the young men were educated to fall in line. The children at their mother's knee and in the school were being educated in patriotism. That was what surprised the North

tell his reople how Sumter had been fired on. Then he saw some of the "Falling in and South and made the men fall in line. That patriotism must be preserved. He does not like to hear talk of the new city as a business corporation. Who will defend a business corporation. "A lawyer," A. J. Witherell said. "That's good," remarked Mr. Hall, "but not many law yers went to the front as soldiers. I think seventy per cent of congress is lawyers, but that per cent of the Union army was not lawyers.

We are living, be continued, in a society. We are a social organism, bound together by human brotherhood. He made a plea for good literature, literature that would exert an influence, of patriotism and this brotherhood. He said the public schools were doing more in this way than many think. Let us try to elevate our children so that they may be better than us. Let us get a little advanced and teach our children something of human brotherhood. He related a story of a man who called on him the other day and found fault because he had to send his boy to school. He quoted the superintendent of instruction of Paris who explained Germany taught France a lesson once and since then every child of the republic is put into school and taught to love France.

At this juncture a trio of the Sons of Veterans rendered a medley of songs very effectively. They were applauded loudly and had to sing again. George M. Darby, who had never had the pleasure of speaking to the Grand Army before, believed the organization was teaching a grand lesson in patriotism. He was sorry to hear Brother Tower asking that the post and its allied societies should be dispatched. That should not be. He remembered Charles D. Sanford. Mr. Sanford was a school mate of his. He told a story that Mr. Sanford related when he came home once on a furlough. It was that on a march from Newbern be saw a rebel look down a rifle barrel at him. A comrade behind him "dropped" the rebel before he had time It was the feeling that prompted to fire this man's act that holds us together, a common sympathy. Mr. Darby wished that many young men could be present and hear the stories of the war. He thought these stories would stop jingoism and increase patriotism. He sopke of large buildings that have been erocted here and elsewhere out of sentiment and he thought the G. A. R. should have a building in this town. Rev. John C. Tebbetts spoke of his war experiences and war recollections. He reelder brother was in the battle of Shiloh | ble property and polls belonging to each and was almost mortally wounded. He town in the union district. M. V. N. his army experience. The members of men at the front braved death and deserve good things for it he believes that above all it is a good moral character on which the members of the Grand Army should ask for recognition. He believed the south was wrong and the children should be taught so. I. F. Hall invited some of the old soldiers to come and talk to the children of the evening schools about the war.

A. J. Witherell believes it was a combined spirit that sent the men to the front. It was the combined spirit of our Pilgrim fathers and the spirit of "76 that sent them down. The spirit of '95 is the spirit of our Pilgrim fathers, of '76 and '61 all boiled down.

Capta n Potter took exceptions to the statements about lawyers fighting for corporations. He showed that a corpora tions is as a single person and is entitled to the same rights. Mr. Potter considered Mr. Tower's financial views and said he was everything providing the money rolled into the Grand Army treasury. The bond of comradeship that exists between the old soldiers was touched upon. The purpose of the Sons of Veterans was talked about by Mr. Potter. The sons he said, are only in training yet, but when the time comes for them to show it they will exhibit some of the spirit call of the archbishop. Fr. Armstrong that was shown by the men who went to the front in '61. He spoke of the ladies and said they were a great help in the time of the war and are now helping the Grand Army to perform its work. He thinks they should be honored. He sees no danger that the Grand Army will not be provided for nor their memory per.

A. W. Fulton then spoke touchingly about Comrade Lyon who is at the point of death. He said that a statement of the circumstances brought from Boston inside of twenty-four hours a check for Mr. Lyon's pension. Captain Elect Whipple of the Sons of Veterans was called upon. Ever since he became a member of the Sons of Veterans he has taken the greatest pride and pleasure in what he can do for the Grand Army and he believes he voices the sentiments of all the Sons when he states that.

not wiped out soon we will consider you are going to dispatch us.

I. F. Hall spoke and addressed the soldiers as comrades. His mind went back to his boyhood days and he remembered how he ran home from the postoffice to the soldiers are develop the sentiment of human brotterhood.

Muttifarious Duties of The Blackin-ton Member. A Little History of Interest to Voters. EDITO: TRANSCRIPT:-Some of the Blackinton people think that I ought to inform the voters of the town of the peculiar conditions under which the schools in the Blackinton union district are conducted, which conditions are not generally understood. At the risk of being charged with "blowing my own horn," perhaps, I reluctantly do so. In the year 1838, on the petition of Dr. John Bascom and myself, representing school committees of Williamstown and Adams, the legislature passed a law es tablishing a union graded school in Black inton, defining the bounds of a district including Greylock village and Blackinton, reaching to the Harrison farm on the east and to the road running from the residence of Henry Phelps in Williamstown to the Notch, on the west. At that time each town maintained a mali, ungraded school at the east and west limits of Blackinton. In 1873 the two towns accepted the provisions of the law passed in 1868 and built a four-room school house near the Blackinton church. into which were gathered the school children of the union district. Since that time a bailding containing two school ooms and a large hall has been added to the Blackinton plant, and a two-room building put up in Greylock. The union district now has eight schools, well graded, over 300 pupils, and a high school department fitting pupils for the junior year in Drury high school, all comfortably housed in buildings heated and ventilated in accordance with modern requirements. Two members of the school committees. one from each town, have en-

STATE STRENGTH IN CONGRESS.

Some states and some districts in the United States are remarkably strong in congress,-strong year after year with increasing strongth. The cause of this becomes apparent when particular instances are cited.

Take as an example the state of Maine. No other state in the Union is so strong on the floor of the national congress though she has but six men in all to represent her In 1991 Hannihal Hamlin and James G. Blaine were succeeded as United States senators from Maine by Eugene Hale and William P. Frye, respectively, and the terms of the two Maine sengtors will not terminate unt I 1869 and 1901 respectively. Each of these had enjoyed a long previous experience in the house Of Maine's congressmen, Speaker Reed entered the house in 1877, and has therefore served in pine congresses beside the present one. Congressmen Dingley and Eoutelle have been members of the house since 1381. Dingley having been elected to succeed Frye upon the latter's election to the serate. Congressman Seth L. Milliken was elected to the forty-eighth congress in 1883 and his service in the house has been continuous to the present time. It appears from this summary that Speaker Reed has been re-elected to congress nine times, Dingley and Boutelle seven times, and Milliken six times, and Maine's entire delegation to congress for twelve years.

policy of keeping good men continuously in congress. Few states can present a more brilliant array of United States sentiss and Edmunds, who have represented Vermont in the upper house, and the present distinguished senators, Morrill and Proctor. These brilliant men were brought out and schooled by long terms in congress.

As an example of what single districts may accomplish we recall the famous western reserve districts of Ohio. No congressional districts in the country, perhaps, have so steadfastly held to the principle of long terms for its congressmen, and who are the public men that have been brought out in this section of the Benjamin Wade, Joshua R. Giddings, James A. Garfield, Rutherford Hayes and veloped by their congressional servicenot made by nature, and have given Ohio a standing in the house.

Looking at the Massachusetts delegation in the house today and her very ordinary anding among her sister states there have we nothing to learn from the example of Maine, Vermont and Ohio?

paper like the New York Herald calls for there is some serious rause. The Herald the representative of any party, and is the entire people, can have no excuse for making in the country to which he is accredited an intemperate public harrangue which is beneath the dignity of the high office he holds and a gratuitous insult to the nation whose good name he is supposed to uphold. Marvejous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamondville, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no besitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While was paster of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Burlingame & Darby's Drug Store. Regular size 50c, and $1.00 1

The on exhibition in our show examination found that all the ribs on the left side of Mr. Martin's body, and his back, was broken. The left knee was dislocated. There were no cuts or bruises on the body except on the head.

Today, the body was taken to Mr. Martin's late home in Savoy and interment will be Sunday afternoon. The deceased gentleman was just fifty years of age and had resided in Savoy a great many years. He was very popular, and in spite of his blindness, which came on about twelve years ago, has been able to work his farm with the assistance of his children.

He is survived by his wife and ten children, most of whom are very small. A married daughter is Mrs. George Briggs of this town. The facts of the accident are as given in Thursday's TRANSCRIPT, When the train struck the wagon, Mr. Martin was thrown about three rods, striking his head on the fence near Goldberg's store. To Introduce Sewing. For some time past the boys of the Grammar B school have been drilling on each Thursday afternoon of the week. After the holidays a new plan will be tried and the boys of both Grammar B and Grammar A will drill on Thursday afternoon of each week and the girls of these two rooms and of some of the lower rooms will come together for a sewing lesson. The sewing will be under the direction of Miss Frances Piper and the drilling, as before, under the direction of Mr. Richard H. Lansing. Both of these advantages were brought about through the endeavors of Miss Alice Carter who deserves great credit for the interest she takes in our schools.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Hotel Williams Opening. J. J. Murphy opens Hotel Williams to the public today. He has personally over seen its renovation and guests will find a tastily furnished hotel, fresh and clean It has an air of comfort and repose, and one appreciates its hospitality. Mr. Murphy has secured the services of a profes sional chef and is prepared to feed the hungry bountifully at all hours both day and night. The rates are $2 per day; cer tainly very reasonable. Guests will find all the rooms in the hotel comfortably warmed by steam.

A ten-cent supper was served at the Methodist church Friday evening from 6 until 8 o'clock. There was a large num ber present and a neat sum was realized.

The street railroad has posted in many public places schedules of the time at which cars will arrive and leave. The schedule is a very convenient one and the public appreciates it.

Miss Norah Conners of Rotterdam. N. Y., who has been the guest of Miss Kittie Curtis, returned home today. Miss Girard of Adams is visiting at the home of Miss Clara Noel. On account of arrangements which could not be made the Athletic association has decided not to hold a "hop."

Mr. Sweeney, who has charge of the fire alarms, has put an emery wheel into his shop and is prepared to sharpen skates. Mrs. Cora Galusha has been quite ill for a few days. There is a library of one bundred volumes now ready for inspection at the station school. Miss Julia E. Kellogg the principal originated the idea, raised funds by a novel method, and selected the books. As far as known this is the only school having a library in town.

The time tables of the electric railroad now distributed are much appreciated. Randolph F. Clark of the college is at the infirmary, suffering with tonsilitis.

The Hoosac Valley Street Rallroad company has hired a room in C. D. Brown's bakery on Main street to be used as a waiting room. The building is opposite the terminus of the road and the cars can be seen from the window some time before they arrive. The room is conveniently located and will be comfortably fitted, law of Mr. Martin states that he will bring and the accommodation will be much appreciated by patrons of the road.

To Voters of Ward 1.

All the voters of ward 1, irrespective of party should vote for O. A. Archer for school committee. Our district, lying in both towns, naturally does not receive so much attention as the central schools of Williamstown or North Adams. Mr. Archer has for years devoted much of his personal attention to the betterment of our schools and is without doubt, the strongest man in our ward. He is in touch with the best educational thought of the day, which means years of study to an mexperienced man, whatever that man's capabilities may be. There are many minor considerations why every voter should see that we have one of the strongest men on the board from ward 1. Let every man do the right thing for

No Great Anxiety to Furnish Large Amounts For Dr. Moore.

Appears to Be Confident of Ultimate Acquittal.

Change in Public Sentiment Has Induced Cashier Morrill to Return.

MANCHESTER, N. H. Dec. 14.-Dr J. C. Moore was obliged to pass another night in Hillsboro county jail. His counsel, J. W. Fellows, and his nephew, A. C. Moore, spent yesterday in scouring the city for new bondsmen, and met with some success. Several persons indicated a willingness to assist the doctor to the extent of qualifying in $1000 each as bondsmen, but not enough were obtained to make up the necessary $15,000. Hence the unwelcome intelligence was conveyed to the doctor that he would be obliged to remain in Jailer Wadsworth's charge another 24 hours at least Several influential political and business friends of Dr. Moore in other sec tions of the state have been commu nicated with, and the chances are some-what brighter that today he may secure the much-prized bondsmen.

Dr. Moore has not been incarcerated in a cell at the jail, but is given a room to Juiler Wadsworth's own pleasant quarters, and at night he sleeps in a cot in the workroom. His hope of ultimate success is as yet undaunted, and he talk confi dently of acquittal.

The reports of the early return of Charles F. Morril, the defaulting easiler, to turn state's evidence, are now said to be practically confirmed. It is said Mrs. Morrill

Of late Mr. Morrill has not been in the best of health, the climate of South America not agreeing with him, and he has a strong desire to return at the earliest pos sible time. In fact it is rumored that he is already on his way home, and that Mrs. Morrill is preparing to go to New York to meet him upon his arrival at that place. Dr. Moore's recent troubles have precipitated a crisis, and it is said that a cablegram was sent to Mr. Morrill several days ago, telling him that public sentiment had changed regarding him, and that he could now return with safety, so far as any danger of prosecution is concerned. Moreover, it is stated that he has sent word that he would return, giving the exact date when he would sail.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 14.—The ex-cutive committee of the Southern New England Republican College league, an organization embracing 8000 college students in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut, met here yesterday and voted to send 30 delegates to the mock convention of college Republicans of the country at Chicago, April 30 next. The league also voted to support Governor Levi P. Morton of New York for president, and passed a lengthy resolution urging all college Republicans to support him.

Cubans' Hopes Raised.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 14.—The state de-partment has received notice that the 21 Cubans on trial up Nassau on the charge from this country were acquitted after a trial histing only 10 minutes. This is the same party arrested at Wilmington, Del., and acquitted after an exciting frial. Word of the acquittal was received also by Secretary Quesada of the Cuban revolutionary committee, which has established boadquarters here. This news, together with the action of the Federation of Labor endorsing the Cuban cause, and the reports of General Gomez's successes, made the day a notable one in Cuban circles.

Succumbed to Operation.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.-John A. Goldsmith, the well-known handler and driver of famous trotting borses, died at the Presbyterian hospital last night. Last April a serious operation was performed, from the effects of which Mr. Goldsmith railied, and left the hospital in apparently his former health. On the same day he was married to a Miss Bortha Moore of this city, and returned to Washingtonville, where he purchased a stock farm. His just appearance in public was at the Goshen Driving park in September. Goldsmith was born about 37 years ago in Washingtonville.

"Cilizenship a Farce."

DETROIT, Dec. 14.-An address to the country has been adopted by the conference of the colored men held here. It says that the status of the colored race in the United States bears a closer analogy to that of depizens than to the rights of native born citizenship, and that in at least three states of the Union citizenship is a farce, which in default of absolute protec tion, should be exchanged for some paternal form of government. A plan of permanent organization was presented and finally adopted. It is to be called the National Federation of Colored Men.

international chess tournament, in which Messrs. Lasker, Pillsbury, Steinitz and Tschigorin took part, began here yesterday. The results were as follows: Pilishury (black) beat Lasker in a petroff after 35 moves: Tschigorin (black) beat Steinitz in a P-Q 4 opening after 40 moves. The players will play a six-round tournament. that is to say, each man will play six games with every other man.

WEEKLY TRADE REVIEW Shows but Little Improvement Over the Pasi

Few Weeks.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14 .-- R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly roview of trade says: It has been a very quiet week, without any disturbance. Prices of manufactured products slowly recede from the high water mark of speculation, and no material increase In demand is now expected until after the holidays, but there is general confidence that greater activity will then appear, and that works which have stopped a little earlier than usual will again be called hito operation.

The government crop report caused scarcely a ripple of therest, though indicating less than 8,400,000 bales of cotton, and a larger acreage than had been expected of winter wheat. The great supplies of cotton brought over from previous years render it unimportant whether the yield of 1895 was 7,000,000 or 6,000,000 bales, except as affecting future planting, and the extensive organizations of planters to keep back their cotton deprive small re-celpts of their natural influence. Whether from that cause or not, receipts have been over 40 per cent smaller than last year, but takings of spinners and exports are also smaller. The price rose 3-16 cent, and there is a few cent.

The shoe manufacture is getting rather more new business, mainly in cheaper goods, by a reduction in prices which has averaged nearly 4 per cent since the last week of November. For split shoes, men's and women's, there is considerable demand, and for brogans at $1, while orders for wax and kip boots and shoes are more frequent, though small. Shipments for December thus far have been 12½ per cent more than last year. The demand for leather is a little better, with prices averaging 2 per cent lower for the week though unchanged as to hemlock sole.

Iron furnaces in blast Dec. I turned out 216,797 tons weekly, against 217,306 Nov. 1, with increase of 8000 tons in stock unsold. But actual consumption is much smaller than the output at present, and prices again declined, No. 1 anthracite to $13.75, bessemer pig at Pittsburg to $12.60 and gray forge to $12.

Against Street Car Mails.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.-At the meeting of the American Federation of Labor resterday, the committee on resolutions reported a resolution against the carrying of mails on street cars until they were owned by the government. The object of the resolution was to free street railroad employes from the obligations imposed upon them by the federal laws, which restrict the right of men employed by corporations carrying the mails to strike. In the case of a strike by the street car employes of roads carrying the mails, the men, it was contended, would be subject to arrest for obstructing the carriage of mails. There was a long debate over the matter, and finally the convention voted in favor of the resolution against carrying the mail: on street cars.

Call For Democrats.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 14.-W. F. Harrity, chairman of the Democratic national committee, has requested the secretary of the committee to notify the members thereof to assemble in Washington on Jan. 16 next for the purpose of selecting the time and place for holding the next Democratic national convention. Chairman Harrity has received letters from commercial bodies in 50 cities, urging the national committee to select a late date for the convention. Business people contend that a long campaign unsettles trade, and they therefore want the political battle made as short as possible. It is believed that a date not later than the middle of July will
